BORIS THE SPIDER

Journal of Duplicious Doings, Raw Power, and Naked Greed

"Oh, what a tangled web we weave
When first we practice to deceive."

---Sir Walter Scott---

SEASON'S GREETINGS!

Boris and Ms Nar would like to wish all of our subscribers all the best for the holidays and a healthy and prosperous New Year! For your Christmas present, you get an extra week to work out your orders.

Congratulations are in order to Mark Frisch for winning our second game of KREMLIN in minimum time. Given enough interest, we'll start a new one next month. Puffenberger and Campisano are signed up and Mark is automatically seeded in if he wishes to play. The rest of you, sign up soon.

ALTERNATE ALERT: Randy Cox was again NMR in our CIRCUS MAXIMUS game. Anyone interested in saving Lucious Lucius and Randius Rebbus from taking the corner too fast are advised to submit orders for the hapless pair.

This issue brings Volume IV to a close. Come January we'll be bringing you Volume V and probably be introducing a new sub rate. Postage goes up $64 a year, which would be a ridiculous sub increase. Then too my usual copying place closed up shop (guess they couldn't live on my $20-$25 a month), so we'll have to see what seems reasonable. I don't know about a new look for the Volume. I'm experimenting with some different fonts this time since I had to reformat my "cameras-ready" copies as most places don't have a copier wide enough to shrink my old 8.5x12" side-by-side. Finally figured out how to get my graphics to the size I want with my deskjet (using 300x300 dpi resolution instead of 75x75) but the cost is about 2.5 hours printing time versus 40 min. We'll see.

BORIS'S BULLETIN BOARD

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH: If the auto industry had done what the computer industry has done in the past 30 years, a Rolls Royce would cost $2.50 and would get 2,000,000 miles per gallon.

Chris Haasler's S.O.B. is looking for a few STELLAR CONQUEST or NEW WORLD players. For info, check out pp 18-19 for his e-mail and snail mail addresses.

Richard Weiss's Zero Sum is looking for a few SUMMIT players for a round-robin flyer. SUMMIT is an early '60s vintage Milton Bradley game that was probably their answer to DIPLOMACY. I've got a copy and am hoping that at least five other people in the world have one. Richard's address is on p19 too. Wonder how he'll handle the event cards?

Congrats to Mike Teuk ("Gilgamesh", "Enkidu", "1835-B", "Dune") on his victories in HISTORY OF THE WORLD and BRITANNIA in Scott Cameron's Protovision. Scott ("Gilgamesh", "Kremlin") is opening up a new HISTORY OF THE WORLD game and a "Republican Party Presidential Nominee" Bourse.

Be sure to check out the "Boris Hall of Fame" on p 17.

BOOS & KUDOS

This month's Madame Bolduc Press Excellence Award goes Ron Fisher for his article detailing Moscow in "Boris VII".

This month's Ms Nar Super-Sudsdy Bomb is lobbed at Randy Cox for his consecutive NMRs.

FRANCE LIVES!

AUSTRIA AT 15!

Fall 1910

WALL STREET JOURNAL--Was it aid to a beleaguered ally or a callous attempt to pick up a cheap center? It doesn't matter as the net result was to keep the French fleet afloat for yet another year, but with Austrian fleets poised to boil out of the Med into the wide and undefended Atlantic, can the end not be near? And will the Tsar's losses create a breach in his Eastern bastion against the Austrian tyrant?

MURKWOOD! The fortunes of war currently favor two of the Central Powers, Germany and Italy. It is the latter that is gobbling French centers while the East squabbles over how to divide Austria. England, having reaffirmed ownership of the former Russian capital, is busy fending off Italian threats to the Canal and her Atlantic lifeline.

EMBASSY BEAT

MOSCOW: Communications are still out apparently. The Czar is still hoping for proposal for mutual aid.

BORIS WORLD PRESS REVIEW

Bolshevik Bugie--Arad Gibil, President of the People's Revolutionary Bank, has been arrested and charged with insider trading on the Bolshevik Bourse. Mr Gibil had no comment. If found guilty Mr Gibil will be sold into slavery. Meanwhile the Bank is liquidating the allegedly ill-gotten assets as fast as the Bourse rules allow.

Pravda (Moscow): Again political factions are urging the Czar to gain a warm water port be it on the Aegean Sea, or Adriatic Sea by any means necessary.

The Czar prefers peaceful negotiations.

CLASSIFIEDS

Starting fights with someone who could be a needed ally in the future could dangerous for the aggressor.

ERRATA: Russian A SMY was displaced and had to retreat oib, or to SEV or SYR.

CLIFFHOME--Wormtongue is again weaving his diplomatic web to hegemony. The Turks and French are down to two units each and have no chance against their united oppressors, but how long can the Tear, Kaiser, and Re afford to keep their backs turned from Vienna? It may already be too late for the Kaiser. It is definitely in the British best interest to keep France alive and plugging the Gibraltar bottleneck to prevent those marauding Italian fleets from reaching the Atlantic.

EMBASSY BEAT

BERLIN to FRANCE: I had to seize the moment, you understand.

MOSCOW: The Tear expressed outrage over the English fleet's excursion into StP. "And I don't for a minute buy this! Oh, we slipped on the fjord and slid all the way to Murmansk! line. It's an out and out provocation. The only way peace can be preserved between our nations is with a complete and total withdrawal of all English forces from Russian territories!" He was quoted at a dinner with the English Ambassador. Foreign Minister Fisher later clarified that the visit was a social call, bringing gifts of English gin and fresh Norwegian cod. "Perhaps the Tear enjoyed too much of each, causing much confusion." Fisher further denied the southern army was lost and wandering the Syrian Desert. "They're merely fetching figs for the Winter Palace while the fleet stocks up on other desirable commodities in the Turkish capital."

BORIS WORLD PRESS REVIEW

Le Monde: "Treachery and Deceit Uncovered by the Deuxieme Bureau" The long term effects were to turn France against Germany and England then when the three countries were at it. Austria, i.e., Wormtongue, and his weak-minded stooge Italy would sweep up the easy supply centers. King Anthony has taken the first step to stop this menace, but cannot do it alone. We must unite to crush this plague!

Reich Herald (Berlin): Ministry officials announce agreements for trade have been (made) in talks with officials from VEN, ROM and NAP.

Efforts to change Germans from beer drinkers into wine drinkers or non-drinkers will be resisted most vigorously.

--GILGAMESH (continued from p 7)PREFACE:

The Mongols and Mings / Hope that the strings
Of arrows and slings / And Ma-Nar's die flings
Will make them the kings / Of India and things
With all that that brings! / The jewels on strings.
The fine golden rings, / Fortune that clangs,
And broad fame that sings, / And a big score that swings
Blue out of the wings / To win, of all things.
This game.
